

JOB DESCRIPTION

Kingston Tennis Club

Tennis Professional & Content Collaborator

April 1 – October 31, 2025

The perfect summer tennis experience. Coach tennis at the beautiful Kingston Tennis Club KTC while working in partnership with fast growing Instagram tennis influencer @tenniscoachconorcasey

Kingston Tennis Club

With a legacy spanning over 100 years, our seasonal tennis club offers seven outdoor hard courts, a beautiful clubhouse and spectator deck. With the recent restoration of our historic clubhouse and ongoing investments in court renewal, we offer top-notch facilities and tennis programs for the enjoyment of our members, guests and summer campers.

Who is @tenniscoachconorcasey?

Conor Casey is a former Canadian junior national tennis champion and ATP player who now brings his expertise to the court as a professional tennis coach. Beyond tennis, he is a professional comedy writer, director, actor, and creative director, with work featured at Sundance and TIFF.

@tenniscoachconorcasey is the social media platform of Coach Casey, blending informative tennis content and a distinctive comedic style rooted in tennis culture and film. In under a year, Conor's Instagram page grew to 77k followers, featuring over 15 videos with a million+ views.

Position Overview

Based at the historic Kingston Tennis Club in the heart of Kingston, the Tennis Pro's role will be fully integrated, on court and off, under Head Tennis Pro Conor Casey.

This is a unique opportunity for a tennis coach with strong creativity and entrepreneurial skills to quickly move to the next level of your career: both in developing deep on-court instructional experience from a top tennis professional and in gaining an edge in content creation and social media reach by working with one of the best in the tennis business.

Duties and Responsibilities

Reporting to the Head Tennis Professional, the Tennis Pro will deliver club-organized clinics as well as private, semi-private and group lessons. Such programs and lessons are offered to members and guests of all ages and levels of play.

As the Tennis Pro, you will work closely with the club pro as well as other staff members to ensure an exceptional experience for our members, campers and guests. You will have a highly visible presence at the club throughout the summer season, engaging with members and staff and working with others (volunteers and staff) to support KTC's mission as a high-quality club, bringing together a community of people who love tennis.

Responsibilities:

- Support the Head Pro as an instructor for many of the KTC-organized clinics. These include recurring clinics offered by the Club Pro each month to adults and junior players.
- Under the direction of the Head Pro and as assigned, deliver private and semi-private lessons, and group lessons.
- Assist as necessary in the organization and running of tournaments and other club tennis events. These include the Junior Tennis Tournament, Family Tennis Fest, and Open House.
- With the Head Pro, provide training and curriculum support to other instructors (including camp counsellors).
- Collaborate with Conor Casey and the KTC on social media content, branding, and marketing strategies.
- Provide a high level of service to members and guests and be responsive to their inquiries
- Support the Head Pro, on and off the court, in other ways as assigned, including programming, content creation, social media, and administrative support.
- Average expected workload over the season is 25-35 hours per week, including weekends; variable from week to week depending on demand and club activities
- As a role model for others, always conduct yourself in a professional and responsible way.

Qualifications

- Tennis Canada Instructors Certification
- Experience in teaching tennis – for adults, juniors, both small and larger group formats
- Passion for social media, and branding, with a willingness to learn and collaborate on content creation
- Demonstrated organizational, communication and interpersonal skills.
- Availability from early April to October
- Member Tennis Professionals Association (TPA)

Remuneration

TBD based on qualifications and experience.
