

The Noble Tennis School in Kingston, Ontario, in partnership with the Kingston Tennis Club, is offering the following job opportunity for the 2023 season.

Title: Next Level Summer Camp Director

Job Description: This camp's program is geared to minimum Intermediate level players, maximum 8 kids per week, ages 10-14. In addition to leading on and off-court activities during the camp, the Director is responsible for camp organization, administration and communications. The Director will work with Tony Roth of the Noble Tennis School on the development and delivery of the camp curriculum.

Depending on candidate qualifications and availability, employment includes additional teaching of Kingston Tennis Club members and Noble Tennis Programs.

Employment Dates: The Camp runs 9 weeks beginning July 3. Employment can be summer-only, or it can commence in May or June for camp preparation and additional teaching duties, then continue through the Fall until club closing in October.

Requirements: Suitable qualifications, experience and ability to provide effective training for players beyond the beginner level.

Remuneration: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Application: Please submit resume with references to info@nobletennis.com