

The Kingston Tennis Club offers the following job opportunities for the 2022 Season. The KTC is a beautiful, friendly, busy club, with a thriving membership and strong demand for lessons, camps and programs.

Title: Teaching Pro

Job Description: Provide private and small group instruction to junior and adult members, and assist the delivery of Noble Tennis School programs, working closely with NTS Director Tony Roth. The teaching pro position may be combined with the role of Camp Director for the regular KTC Camp or the Next Level (Advanced) Camp, depending on qualifications and availability. Additional activities, such as directing KTC tournaments, may also be applicable.

Employment Dates: Negotiable - commencing as early as May 1 and running as late as the club closing in October.

Requirements: Suitable qualifications, experience, playing ability, professionalism and personality to work with a wide variety of ages and levels, strong leadership and communication skills.

Remuneration: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Application: Please submit resume with references to tony\_roth@kingstontennisclub.com

Title: Summer Camp Director

Job Description: The camp is for ages 7-14, from beginner to low intermediate levels. In addition to leading on and off-court activities during the camp, the Director is responsible for camp organization, administration and communications. The Camp Director will work with Tony Roth of the Noble Tennis School on the development and delivery of the camp curriculum. Depending on candidate qualifications and availability, employment may include additional private teaching of KTC members and Noble Tennis Programs.

Employment Dates: The Camp runs for 9 weeks from July 4, employment can commence in May or June for camp preparation and additional teaching activities and may continue through the Fall until club closing in October.

Requirements: Suitable qualifications, experience, professionalism and personality to work with a wide variety of people, strong leadership and communication skills.

Remuneration: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Application: Please submit resume with references to tony\_roth@kingstontennisclub.com

Title: Next Level Summer Camp Director

Job Description: This camp is for minimum low Intermediate players, training includes coached match play, video analysis, off court fitness and tennis classroom. In addition to leading on and off-court activities during the camp, the Director is responsible for camp organization, administration and communications. The Camp Director will work with Tony Roth of the Noble Tennis School on the development and delivery of the camp curriculum. Depending on candidate qualifications and availability, employment includes additional private teaching of KTC members and Noble Tennis Programs.

Employment Dates: The Camp runs 9 weeks from July 4, employment can commence in May or June for camp preparation and additional teaching duties and can run through the Fall until club closing in October.

Requirements: Suitable qualifications, experience and ability to provide effective training for players beyond the beginner level.

Application: Please submit resume with references to tony\_roth@kingstontennisclub.com